

City of Seaside Mayor Ralph Rubio is a lifelong resident of Seaside, attended Seaside schools, graduated from Seaside High School, and attended the University of California, Berkeley. Mayor Rubio retired from the Carpenter's Union after 39 years, having worked as a rank and file member for 23 years and for the Carpenters Union for 16 years and served as the Senior Field Representative for Monterey and Santa Cruz Counties and other leadership positions. Mayor Rubio was elected to the Seaside City Council in 2000 and elected Mayor in 2004.

In addition to his employment and civic life, Mayor Rubio has served and serves on numerous boards and commissions to include:

- Association of Monterey Bay Area Governments (Immediate Past President – two terms)
  - Transportation Agency for Monterey County (Past Chair)
    - Fort Ord Reuse Authority (Past Chair)
  - Seaside Groundwater Basin Watermaster (Past Chair)
    - Monterey Regional Water Pollution Control Agency
      - Seaside County Sanitation District
      - Monterey Regional Water Authority
  - Local Agency Formation Commission of Monterey County
    - Carpenters Local Union 605, Monterey County
      - St. Francis Xavier Church in Seaside
      - Knights of Columbus, Seaside Council 5261
    - Knights of Columbus, Santa Rosalia Assembly, 4th Degree
      - Monterey Peninsula Y's Men's Club
      - Chair, Special Olympics Committee
- Past Chair and Co-Chair of Laguna Seca, Scholarship, AT&T Event, Fire Work Sales, Jazz Festival Concessions, YMCA Christmas Tree Lot Committees
- National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials
  - League of United Latin American Citizens
    - National Council of La Raza
- National Association for the Advancement of Colored People
  - Seaside Pony Baseball

RALPH RUBIO

MAYOR - 2004-2010 / 2012-2018